

“Oh goodness, you do look strange!”

Directions: Read through the word bank and circle all of the words that are singular.

Word bank: eyes, ears, mouth, nose, head, hair, cheeks, neck, hands, fingers, fingernails, legs, shoulders, knees

Directions: Use the word bank and the describing words to fill in the following sentences. How many sentences can you come up with? Be careful, pay attention to words that are singular and plural!

Describing words: big, large, huge, small, tiny, hairy, long, short, fat, skinny, black, blue, orange, red, brown

Little Red Riding Hood says:

You've grown a lot of _____.

And your _____, (plural) they look so _____.

And your _____, (singular) it looks so _____.

And your _____ (plural) have grown as well, I wonder why?

And your _____ (singular) has grown as well, I wonder why?

The Big Bad Wolf says:

All the better to _____ you with (hear, see, touch, hug, run to, chase, eat, bite)!!!!

Let's Practice! :

Get together with a partner and practice taking turns being Little Red Riding Hood and the Big Bad Wolf. Make sure that the wolf responds each time.

“Oh goodness, you do look strange!”

Part one

Directions:

First, read through the word bank and circle all of the words that are singular.

Next, create a small drawing to go along with all of the words from the word bank and the list of describing words. Try your best!

Word bank: eyes, ears, mouth, nose, head, hair, cheeks, neck, hands, fingers, fingernails, legs, shoulders, knees

eyes	ears	mouth	nose	head	hair
cheeks	neck	hands	fingers	fingernails	legs
shoulders	knees	tiny	small	big/large	huge hairy	long	short	fat	skinny	black
blue	orange	red	brown	_____	_____

Describing words: tiny, small, big/large, huge, hairy, long, short, fat, skinny, black, blue, orange, red, brown

“Oh goodness, you do look strange!”

Part two

Directions: Use the word bank and the describing words to fill in the following sentences. How many sentences can you come up with? Be careful, pay attention to words that are singular and plural!

Little Red Riding Hood says:

You've grown a lot of _____.
And your _____, (plural) they look so _____.
And your _____, (singular) it looks so _____.
And your _____ (plural) have grown as well, I wonder why?
And your _____ (singular) has grown as well, I wonder why?

The Big Bad Wolf says:

All the better to _____ you with (hear, see, touch, hug, run to, chase, eat, bite)!!!!
All the better to _____ you with (hear, see, touch, hug, run to, chase, eat, bite)!!!!
All the better to _____ you with (hear, see, touch, hug, run to, chase, eat, bite)!!!!
All the better to _____ you with (hear, see, touch, hug, run to, chase, eat, bite)!!!!

Let's Practice! :

Get together with a partner and practice taking turns being Little Red Riding Hood and the Big Bad Wolf. Make sure that the wolf responds each time.

“Oh mon Dieu, tu as l'air étrange!”

Instructions: Lisez la banque de mots et encerclez tous les mots au singulier.

Banque de mots: yeux, oreilles, bouche, nez, tête, cheveux, joues cou, mains, doigts, ongles, jambes, épaules, genoux

Décrire les mots: grand, grand, énorme, petit, minuscule, poilu, long, court, gras, maigre, noir, bleu, orange, rouge, marron

Instructions: Utilisez la banque de mots et les mots descriptifs pour remplir les phrases suivantes. Combien de phrases pouvez-vous trouver? Attention, faites attention aux mots au singulier et au pluriel!

Little Red Riding Hood says:

Vous avez beaucoup grandi _____.
Et votre _____, (pluriel) ils ont l'air si _____.
Et votre _____, (singulier) ça a l'air si _____.
Et vos _____ (pluriel) ont aussi grandi, je me demande pourquoi?
Et votre _____ (singulier) a grandi aussi, je me demande pourquoi?

The Big Bad Wolf says:

Tant mieux pour vous _____ avec (entendre, voir, toucher, étreindre, courir, chasser, manger, mordre)!!

Entraînons-nous! :

Rassemblez-vous avec un partenaire et pratiquez à tour de rôle le petit chaperon rouge et le grand méchant loup. Assurez-vous que le loup répond à chaque fois.

